

Over the past five years, I have built a freelance business, collaborating with various companies and organizations to produce photo/video marketing content. Recently, I have worked as a camera operator for sports broadcast events. With proficiency in both extreme sports and digital marketing, I create specialized marketing content tailored to outdoor enthusiasts like myself. I always make room in my pack for my camera!

Nicklaus North Golf Course - Photographer

May 2022 to present

- To increase Nicklaus North's content library, I photographed all member events and created a library of marketing imagery currently being used for social media marketing and website uses.
- Deliverables included lifestyle, food, sport, landscape imagery, as well as video reels of events.

Partners in Tourism Golf Tournament - Event Photographer

2023 to present

- I led the shot list planning and photography of the full-day event.
- The event includes a full day of golf, followed by a banquet dinner and awards ceremony.
- Deliverables included preparing a slideshow in time for dinner as well as managing a second shooter.

WORCA - Social Media Photo/Video Creator

Summer 2022 • 6 months

- Whistler Off-Road Cycling Association approached me to produce weekly Instagram Reels recapping their Toonie Races.
- I would ride the course filming riders during the race and the after-ride apres.
- I created twelve 60-second reels edited to music for the WORCA website and Instagram feed with each reel delivered within 72 hours of the event.

Crystal Lodge Whistler - Social Media Interview Videos

November 2023 • 2 months

- Crystal Lodge approached me to produce social media content for an interview with professional skier Ian McIntosh to promote their accommodation.
- I organized a three-camera interview shoot alongside their internal marketing department.
- Deliverables included a motion graphics intro bumper consistent with existing branding, 2x 60-second reels, and a full 35-minute interview video for YouTube.
